Dear Parents/Carers,

June 2020

We take safeguarding very seriously here at Belgrave, but we also need your support in keeping our community safe.

Call the NSPCC helpline for support and advice if you have a concern for your own or another child's safety on 0808 800 5000.

If you feel that your child is in immediate danger, call the police on 999. You can report concerns to the police on their non-emergency number, 101.

You can also contact the relevant social care team at your local council to report a concern about a child or adult.

Visit the See, Hear, Respond service or call on 0800 157 7015 for additional support, advice and information during this period (England only).

This includes online and face-to-face support for children and families, help for children at risk of harm outside of the home, and support to help vulnerable children successfully return to school or college.

Domestic abuse

Find out how to recognise and spot the signs of domestic abuse.

If you or someone you know is a victim of domestic abuse:

- see domestic abuse: how to get help which includes specific advice on how to get help for children and young people
- call the NSPCC helpline for advice and support if you have concerns about a child on 0808 800 5000, as well as the National Domestic Abuse helpline on 0808 2000 247

If you are in immediate danger, call 999 and ask for the police. If you are unable to talk on the phone, listen to the questions from the operator and respond by coughing or tapping the handset if you can. Follow the instructions depending on whether you are calling from a mobile or a landline.

Further support and advice can be found here; <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-keeping-children-safe-from-abuse-and-harm/advice-to-parents-and-carers-on-keeping-children-safe-from-abuse-and-harm>

Take care and we are always here if you need any support or advice.

Mrs K Deaville
Principal
